

MAGDALENA SAPETA – The bowmaker.

Born in Poland. She started studying violin construction and bows repairing in a workshop in Katowice. Later she continued the study in the International Violin Making School in Cremona. In 2006 Mrs. Sapeta and her husband opened own workshop in Valencia, and later in 2015 in Madrid (Spain). She has continuing the studies of bow making with Tibor Kovacs. From 2020 started to working in her family town in Poland. She participated in bow exhibitions in Frankfurt and Cremona. In 2020 she won second prize in The 2nd Leopold Auer International Violin and bow making competition. Currently, she have workshops in Valencia and Żywiec, She also provide training for violin makers in the field of the bow making and lessons for beginners and advanced lovers of this art.